TEMPE GIRL BRIDE OF PASADENA MAN

TEMPE, May 8.—Miss Lena Cole of Tempe and Harold Ross of Pasadena, California, were married Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother on Van Ness avenue. The ceremony was read by Rev. J. R. Rountree of the Christian church and was witnessed by the bride's relatives and a few of her most intimate friends. Mrs. Ross was raised from childhood in Tempe and after graduating from the Tempe normal in 1912 followed the teaching profession in the schools of the valley. This term she is employed in the school at Bunkie and will finish the two weeks yet to be taught there.

The groom is associated with a Phoenix automobile concern. Following the close of the school season Mr. and Mrs. Ross plan to leave for Pasadena where they will reside permanently.

There will be no sewing but an earnest effort to plan a campaign which shall result in enlisting the people of the community in this work. If more interest is requested that both men and women take an hour off and attend this meeting to-day.

At 8 p. m. the Mesa Commercial club will meet at the club rooms. There will be no supper but a most important "prosperity meeting" is planned. This meeting is so arranged with more interest to the community and the valley than the title may indicate and no member should fail to be present.

GIBSON FUNERAL
Dr. William H. Fowler, accompanied by Mrs. Fowler and Walter Gibson, the brother of the man so foully murdered last week, left yesterday morning for Globe in the auto belonging to the victim of the tragedy. Mr. Fowler will assist in the funeral which will be held today at 10 o'clock in the morning at the residence of Mr. Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler sheltered the heartbroken widow in their home for a time after the tragedy. She probably will go from Globe to her relatives in Texas.

K. N. PARKINSON BACK
K. N. Parkinson recruiting officer for the First Arizona Infantry, has returned from a trip to Idaho, Utah and Nevada. He reports that men are enlisting readily in the states visited. The Brigham University and the University of Utah have closed for the term because so many students are giving themselves to their country's service. Several high schools of Utah have closed for the same reason. Practically all communities have a live home guard. Parkinson states that the cold winter prevented a paving stand which and the land is being planted to spring wheat.
